Thank you Wend.
These are lovely ones again. I think she kinda looks sad in the first one, but shes got that cheeky look in her eyes in the B/W one.
You have a lovely Christmas too.

Take a look at this beautiful drawing of the lovely Dusty then. Not one of mine though - (I wish) But isn't it wonderful to look at. I found it on e-bay. Look at the detail in her nails, the ring, her fingers and hair, I think the artist is John Fell, it's just beautiful, in fact it's a masterpiece.

This is one of mine though, and now for something completely different a bit of Dusty pop art.

Well it's Christmas

Both images are very different and very Dusty Wend. I think they are both good.

I don't really know Liz, but he must be quite old by now, as that was drawn in 1966 or is it 1978, not sure, maybe he was a fan. I think he is American, because that's where the drawing was, although obviously that's not absolute, someone could have taken it over from the UK.

Wow, I love Dusty going pop!

And yes, John Fell's (?) drawing is amazing.

Nice recent pics, Wendy! Love the pop purple one. The Fell drawing is lovely though I like your treatment of D's hair better; it's more original!
