..Obviously there were many, some sad, some funny, some just 'ordinary'...😄

But, which ONE is your favourite?..and if you feel so inclined, maybe you'd like to tell us why.

Now, Who's gonna start?...🙄

Hi Carole 😊 Great thread !

I'm not that much of an expert on Dusty's quotes yet, but two that made me laugh is when she is being interviewed on Saturday Night At The Mill (BBC DVD), and i can't remember the exact words but she said something about not wanting to be a 'mooveeee starr....', it's just the way she said it in a cheeky american accent, i thought that was hilarious 🙄 No disrespect to our American members on LTD.

Then later on when they're talking about cats, Dusty said:
"In Egypt if you hurt a cat, you got your head cut off, which i think is a highly civilised thing to do..."

Dusty said a lot of things that have been lifted and quoted elsewhere, she just had the knack of saying memorable things. From the mid 90's...

"A lot of my life has no real clarity. I look at those (old) clips and I remember the circumstances very clearly. Was I happy or not happy? If I don't identify with the person, it's because I invented her in the first place. She was an invention, but my own invention. I was my own Svengali".

"It's wonderful to be popular.. but foolish to think it will last"

I love that because it reminds me that all things are transitory, what matters today may not matter tomorrow, and there are simply more important things in life, so focus on those.
