What is your favourite movie that features a Dusty recording on it's soundtrack?

Also has anyone ever seen The Corrupt Ones AKA The Peking Medallion-it never seems to turn up on TV or DVD.

I really enjoyed While You Were Sleeping with 'Wherever Would I Be' at the end, but the number of times that film has been on telly and they cut off the end credits with a voiceover. My favourite Dusty song from a movie though would have to be 'But It's a Nice Dream' from Kiss Me Goodbye. As for The Peking Medallion, I saw it a couple of times back in the olden days but I don't think I've seen the whole film since then.

I fell for Jane Horrocks in the movie 'Getting It Right' (one of her earliest screen apperences) with Jessie Birdsall and Lynn Redgrave. A smashing 'feelgood' movie which I really wish they would release on DVD. Dusty is heard singing the title track on the end credits of course...

'Nothing has been proved' from Scandal, which I recall seeing at a Cinema, the song was over the credits at the end unfortunately when most of the audience had upped and left, but I'm one of those Saddo's who likes to remain and checkout who sang what on a Movie 😊👍!
