Yaaay! I bought my first Dusty DVD today called 'People Get Ready. It was only £7 in HMV. What Dusty DVD was first in everyone else's collection?

Hi Angela -

I have a couple from friends, and others than I have seen on loan. The first 'commercial' one for me was "Just Dusty".

Congratulations, Angela! You will enjoy People get ready!

The first time I saw Dusty moving, as opposed to still photos on the internet, was when I had Full Circle on loan from our public library. I was so excited, it's a great moment to savour. 😊 expressive/dramatic, and you can see that she genuinely seems to be enjoying herself. In some performances, there's a real buzz/excitement in her!

'People Get Ready' was my first DVD of Dusty also. Found a very good deal on ebay and went for it. Feel sure you will like it and have to get more.

Hi Angel

It looks like you're on your fantastic Dusty journey. I know you'll have a good time.

I can't remember what my first DVD was. I got a few VHS videos from the Dusty Bulletin first - there wasn't much available in the shops. 'Full Circle' was probably my first DVD and I think it replaced a VHS copy. My second was 'People Get Ready'.

My first Dusty DVD was actually VHS. It was a compilation of TV appearances in America--got it from a guy on eBay. It also had RAH on it -- not the greatest copy but this is before the official DVD was released, so it was a real gem to own.

Congrats Angela and enjoy. The first video I bought was "Full Circle". I'm not sure, I think the next one was a Christmas gift from a friend, My Very Best, Love Dusty. Have them all except for "Justy Dusty"-give me time (ok so that is a bad pun, LOL!)

My first DVD was Live at the BBC. I still watch it a lot and I think it's fantastic.

'Full Circle' on VHS and 'Reflections' on DVD...not sure which came first as it took awhile for Full Circle to come out on DVD.
