Michael Ball just played SOAPM on R2 and announced that there was to be an event at the Mermaid Theatre on 17th December featuring the music of three great ladies, Ella Fitzgerald, Aretha and Dusty. Madeline will be one of the performers. Tickets free on a first come first served basis, and available now.

I'd really like to go to that, as I'm in London that day anyway - it's recording Thursday, 17th Dec at the Mermaid Theatre - but it finishes quite late and being as I'm working the following day, I can't stay overnight. Otherwise, I'd def apply for tickets! Is anyone from LTD going to the actual recording?

They are still advertising this show on the radio, So I guess all the tkts haven't yet been taken up yet. 🙄

Michael Brandon who used to be in the crime show 'Dempsey and Makepiece' will be the Compere.

When I heard the advert I thought, knowing how much Dusty worshipped those iconic singers... 'how chuffed would Dusty be to be part of that trio?!?'... 🤔

..and before anyone says it..I know that they should be thrilled too. 😊😄

I'm almost sure that I heard Ken Bruce say that this show was cancelled due to 'adverse weather conditions'

The Mermaid theatre must have no roof!... 🙄

Nah...He was saying that the musicians et al wouldn't be able to get there. Did I hear right...anybody?

No, it did take place, I know someone who was there. The one that was cancelled was going out live that night (18th), the one with Madeline that took place on the 17th was being recorded for broadcast on 1st Jan.
