Hi all,

I was watching the news and sipping coffee yesterday morning. As I looked up the news reporter obviously caught my attention with "and I caught up with Hal David himself". Barbara Harrison, news reported spewed.. he turns 89" the segment proceeded with a quick biography of Hal as a young boy, young man and then adult in the War. He loved writing and music he wanted to worked with the USO in the military to be close to music...

Then there were the albums mentioned of his song writing with Burt Bacharach and I saw pics of Barbra Streisand, Dionne Warwick, Tom Jones (What's new Pussycat?) and our lovely and darling Dusty Springfield showing and airing the "Look of Love". It was a pleasant and welcoming surprise to see Dusty's face on an album cover while the reporter was speaking of Mr. Hal David!!! 🥰

I just had to share this citing!!!

Happy birthday, Hal! He wrote some great lyrics. And yeah well... a few chauvinist ones.
