How Can I Be Sure- The Perfect Morecambe and Wise Show. (#p149898)

by darren2722 » Fri Mar 28, 2014 7:46 pm

For those in the UK (except Northern Ireland 🇬🇧) There is another chance to catch Dusty singing How Can I Be Sure on a repeat showing on BBC2 on Saturday 29th March (Tomorrow evening) at 8pm of a programme called The Perfect Morecambe and Wise.

From a show originally broadcast on 26th August 1970, This is one of the most shown clips of Dusty, and is featured on several documentaries and DVD's of Dusty and is available on youtube but someone might not have seen it. 🙄

Pity she wasn't involved in a sketch with Morecombe and Wise a la Dame Shirley and Tom Jones.

Sorry for anyone in Northern Ireland just realized this show is on BBC2 a hour later at 9.pm Tonight.

Thanks Lynn & Cas. 🙏 Agree with Trek it would have been nice to see Dusty do a sketch like Shirley, Tom or Glenda Jackson Etc, on this show 🍷

Yes, a sketch would have been great, I wonder why there wasn't? There are shows I thought she would have done like Parkinson, was she interviewed on the Frost programme following "Brand New Me"? Maybe she did but the recording has disappeared into the ether with all the other recordings the Beeb/ITV, in their wisdom ,lost or destroyed. We are lucky that we do have recordings but their could have been so much more I'm sure. Heigh - Ho.

I remember back in the day wanting Dusty to do a sketch with M&W, and being disappointed in a way that she didn't. She would have been just extremely funny wouldn't she? Still wasn't she wonderful last night, its almost as though shes still here when you see such gems as this.
