But for now, I leave you with this, a nice video montage plus a song that has a LOT of meaning these last 10 years:

Happily it's available in Canada - thanks James for giving me such a wonderful way to touch base with Dusty today.

Lovely clip and very moving. Some of this footage was shot in Australia as it carries the Australian Broadcasting Company logo. Many thanks for posting.

This is a great clip filmed in Sydney Australia in 1967. She did a tv show here called Bandstand and it was a one off special on Dusty I think that it is available somewhere. I was with her at the time and have some stills from when this was filmed. I will post them one day with all the others I've mentioned before...

LOL Dougie..

You know, Dougie, all the little nuggets of information and history like this really bring these clips to life and put them in a real context - thank you for that.
