Is Dusty watching over us?

by Starlight » Sun Apr 22, 2012 6:31 pm

Look at these photos I took last night just before I went to Neil's. I took them one after another and the second one has three lights on. Did Dusty approve that all three items were in one place?

or am I just being stupid 😊

Not sure Dusty cares about worldly things anymore. Other than making fans trip every now and then. 😊

I see the lights too.

Yes, I think Dusty is there. When I was younger, I was allergic to cats. 2 years ago, I asked a night to Dusty if I was still allergic to cats. I had an answer in dream : no. After that night, everytime I play with cats, I no longer have any symptoms. My allergy disappeared. Is it a coincidence? 😊

I want that leather jacket!! I must say I can't see any lights.

Were these pics taken at your house Helen?

"Brothers and Sisters, I have seen the light (s)"... 🙏

At first I thought my PC screen needed a good clean 😬, but then realised that there are definitely marks (about five round ones) on the suit and just one (round one) on the jacket...Could these be a reflection of lights in the room where the pic was taken?.. 🤔

By the way,I like the leather jacket as well.. especially the paisley lining. ..luverly. 😊

I took some photo's at an evening wedding reception Helen and they had those spots on too. Just a trick of the camera I think but that doesn't mean I don't think Dusty has a hand in some things, cos I do 😊

☺ Yeah the pictures were taken in my bedroom, the light was behind me. I guess I just liked the idea that Dusty was here.

Dusty's always there ! And we're all here to make sure of it. 😊

★ The lighting really makes a difference on that gown.

It really brought out the beauty of the gold n' paisley print. ★

It hasn't shown like that in other photos. Dusty understood the importance of lighting. 😄

Looks like she came in to approve of your technique Helen. 🙌

Always clean your lens with soft tissue and lens cleaner. Droplets of moisture can come from the air, or your mouth when talking around your camera or carrying it lens open. Could be those pesky circles you see. 😓

Just seen this Helen, Great pics of all of Dustys things. Not sure about your 'lights', though yes I can see them, but I'm sure Dusty would be there and watching over you.
