I've always read/heard that one of Dusty's middle names was IsObel, but recently (was it in Sharon Davis' book?) I have seen it spelled IsAbel.

Which was the proper spelling? And how to account for the various spellings?

You have to think that what is on her birth certificate is correct, Isabel.

Thanks.

Any theories about why Isobel became so commonly used?

Is Isobel a more common spelling in the UK? Here it's Isabel.

You and me both - I've always thought it was 'Isobel'.

Dido has a song on her debut album called 'Isobel', so I'd think that the 'o' is the usual spelling, as Miss Armstrong is British. Though if Miss Dusty's birth certificate says 'a', that's got to be it. Of course, people's names are misspelled on their birth certificates. If they weren't, we'd be watching the "Orpah Winfrey Show" 🤪

It also says Isabel on Dusty's death certificate btw.

Isabel it is. Just find it curious that for years all I've read is Isobel.

☹️ Whatever it says on Ms Winfrey's birth certificate I would not be watching her show!

My perception is that Isabel is the most common spelling in the English speaking world, Isobel being the favored Gaelic spelling (the Dido song would seem to be about an Irishwoman: I thought it was strange when your car was found/ By the tree in Ennis where we used to hang around). The tendency to spell Dusty's middle name as Isobel may have been due to her ancestry being so well known.

Isabel is a lovely name. Dusty's parents had good taste. I wonder if she was named after someone in the family....

Isabel it is. I do wonder, like Nancy, why I've read it as Isobel so many times. Oh well. At least there's that minor mystery solved!

Sweetbaby, I think it's actually spelled 'Oprah' on Ms. Winfrey's birth certificate. Her mother wanted to name her Orpah, after a woman in the Book of Ruth in the Bible, but it was misspelled and the rest is history! (I don't watch her show either 😊)

Thanks, Richard and Taylor! I never watch Oprah either. Would watch pretty much anything else in that time slot.

"Isabella" was one of the finalists in our naming game for Lupita.

And btw, Bernadette has to be after St. Bernadette - The old Roman Catholic custom that a saint's name had to be included at a child's Baptism.

Ouch, that yellow is hard to read.
Wasn't Bernadette her confirmation name? Or does memory fail me once again?

Dusty's birthday is also the feast of St Bernadette, April 16th.
