I was seriously tempted, I can tell you, Wend. Its only a four hour drive. But then the rain came on and that was that so I stayed in and watched 'Holby City' instead lol (Cas breathes a sigh of relief!)

Loved the Show, Katy had the audience in the palm of her hand from the very first song! The Mechanics was packed, my friend Chris remarked, 'Theres a lot here, theres a lot of people must have loved Dusty.' I enjoyed Katys versions of, 'Stay A while' 'If You Go Away' and 'Quiet Please Theres a Lady on Stage.' Katy won me over as Katy herself, and her Tina Turner impersonation was priceless! At the end of the show Katy got a standing ovation. I spoke to Katy after the show and she posed for a photo.

I know you enjoyed it from last nights phone call 🤗 Good that she had an almost full house and that she completely won you over! That woman in the blue blouse gave me a surprise, I have to wear that same ghastly thing for work!

Incidentally, I was visiting one of my patients earlier this morning when - without any prompting from me - she began to tell me how she had been to see 'Dusty Springfield' the other week. It was, of course, Katy. And my patient said she had a fantastic evening. I've been ordered to email and tell Katy lol.

Here's mine from last Saturday in Dartford! Why i'm not looking at the camera i don't know.

Dusty reminders were all over the place ont the day. I headed off to Wimbledon (a mile form where I live), to get the hair done for the occasion. For our overseas friends, I'm referring to the shopping area of the Wimbledon not far from a Dusty favourite (as you know) - The All England Lawn Tennis and Croquet Club! There i also popped into Elly's (department store) and while in the Top Shop section I heard 'Windmills of Your Mind' by our Dusty!!! I was most impressed!

A little later in the afternoon I met up with Stephen and we set off for Dartford. Thanks to Stephen we had seats in the 2nd row and it looked as though the turnout was pretty good!! Everyone clapped, jived in thier seats, laughed and gave Katy a standing ovation.

I missed the 'The One and Only' tv show but had seen youtube clips. What a great, powerful voice! After the show Katy signed our brochures and posed for a photo. Katy seemed to know quite a few people there.

I was in Vegas between 24-31st of May and didn't see Katy perform in 'Legends in Concert'... I can explain!!! I'd only just discovered Dusty, hadn't seen anything of Katy before landing, had friends with me and we spent a lot of time trying to keep everyone happy and somewhat organised. Yes, I'm still kicking myself!!

Jenny, I loved reading your post, and I'm really glad that you got to see Katy on stage and enjoyed her show.

I was curious when you wrote that you only recently discovered Dusty - may I ask, how did that come about? And since you are a recent "convert", as it were, how lovely that you are already here on LTD and off seeing Katy as Dusty I'm impressed :)

Hi Stephen Nice picture. How are you? I still get a bit upset about the robbery if I think about it.

Stephen and I met at my hotel as we were planning on going to Henley together.

Love the poster of Katy in the background.

Only a pleasure Chris. I really enjoyed the outing and the whole day couldn't have been more perfect!

Marty, will let Stephen know you asked about him. Lucky co-incidence the poster appeared in our photo. Love it!

Will, happy to hear you enjoyed the post!

Ok, just found the article that changed my life. It was an article posted on one of my favourite websites on 2nd May this year about Nicole Kidman playing Dusty on film. I'm sure being South African didn't help my lack of exposure to Dusty's music when I was younger... I'm sure if I'd have heard Dusty A LONG time ago I would've been a fan A LONG time ago. I feel as though I've been robbed! Anyway, after reading the article I immediately started my research. Discovered so much that's helped me in so many ways and I know this is true for so many of us.

So yes, I'm making up for lost time by loading the iPod, ordering back-issues of DSBs, CDs, books etc from Paul Howes, books from Amazon, trawling through the forum for new and old posts, seeing Katy etc. I've discovered the joys of e-bay. I now need a new iPod as the current one is full. My dilemma... Do I go for pink or purple? So yes, I'm also putting in a lot of overtime at work.

Thank you for that, Jenny - and I'm glad you are not walking on the Dusty road (oh darn, that is a seriously bad analogy, but you get the idea, ahem). There are several people who are fairly recent devotees of Dusty, all delighted to have found 'the way' at last and all now keep the flame burning.

Good to have you with us here, Jenny :)

When I saw Katy we spoke about the wigs, and she was explaining that it is really hard when you have only so long inbetween songs to do the quick changes. The first wig she wears on stage is slightly better I feel. Both these wigs don't look quite this big as they do in the photos when you see them 'Live' so to speak.

I'm seeing Katy again on Sunday at the Pavilion, a gorgeous old theatre, and I can't wait. I was chatting to her earlier this evening and she was enjoying her day off, and I mentioned that all the reports I am hearing about the show are really, really positive, which is lovely.

My father got to meet Katy last time round, this time it's the turn of my little sister, who is looking forward to seeing the show and hearing Katy sing. And of course I'll post photos afterwards, although I doubt I'll be able to take any during the show this time.

Have a fab time in Stockport, you lot - Carole, you'll love the show! And Neil - take your hankies :)

And of course you will know by now that it is a REQUIREMENT that you post the obligatory photo once you get home and - if you have any energy left - a few words of review ;))

You mean I have to take a camera? 😊 We'll see what we can do. We're off for a meal first and the obligatory glass of wine or two, just so that Neil can get rid of his inhibitions you understand!

I doubt I'll be able to get any during the show at the Pavilion, Marty, but will get some after the show :)

In the meantime, for all those waiting to see Katy live, and especially all those who are not able to see her during this current tour, here is what I think they call "a pot boiler" - just to whet your appetite...
