Just to let everyone know that I've received a couple of messages telling me that Kay passed away a little while ago. She had been suffering from cancer and was admitted to the Royal Marsden last week. Those of us at Dusty Day wont ever forget her starring performance this year. Condolences to her family and to those who knew Kay well, as a friend and colleague.

I'm very sorry to hear this. Her performance of "I Only Want to Laugh" at Dusty Day was unforgettable.

May she rest in peace, and our thoughts go out to her family and friends.

This is so sad.

Kay was a treasure - a singer who deserved to make the big time, but seemed happy in the background. Every Dusty fan will miss her.

RIP Kay

As soon as I saw the name on the front page I just knew what the first post was going to say, sometimes you just have a gut feeling, and my first thought was "Oh no, another beautiful soul gone". My condolences and prayers go out to her family and friends. Such very sad news

I have happy memories of her performance at Dusty Day and will treasure the video footage and pictures I took. Let's hope at next year's DD we can remember both Dusty and Kay...

Sorry to hear about Kay Garner. The ranks continue to thin. What a gallant lady to carry on for DD in spite of her illness.

This extra note has been added on Simon's website :

"Madeline Bell sang "Georgia On My Mind" at the funeral service. Mourners included former choir members from Kay's days with the James Last Orchestra - Lynn Cornell, Sue Glover, Tony Burrows & Russell Stone. Other singers there included The Chanter Sisters, Julie Felix, Stephanie De Sykes & Claire Torry. Our own Pat Rhodes was there, but Simon Bell was unable to attend through illness. There were also many musicians including Derek Wadsworth.

Donations may be made in memory of Kay to Royal Marsden Hospital."
