Let's Talk Dusty Website Launched!

We're pleased to announce that the new Let's Talk Dusty! website officially went live just before 1:00 a.m. London time, 5 February 2007.

You'll find lots here to interest and entertain you. We'll be updating it from time to time, and are counting on you to send in items you would like us to include, as this is a site that focuses on fans.

USA 14235 Posts

Four of the pages have flash video (with music), so be patient if they take 10-15 seconds to load. We promise you, the wait will be worth it.

We are so proud that our hard work has paid off and that we can bring this to you, our fellow Dusty fans.

In loving memory of Dusty who remains in our hearts always, The Let's Talk Dusty! Team

www.dustyspringfield.info

Site created by Nancy J Young and Laura Howard

Many many thanks to the LTD Team and Members who helped us get this off the ground.

I can see that there's hours of fun and masses of information here.

I'm a little speechless at the moment so i'll just say a heartfelt thank you to Nancy and Laura, and to all the Dusty fans who contributed.

That is excellent. Well done to all of you. Im going to suffer in the morning but it was worth it.

Just one little point, please please dont think i'm being picky but there is a typo error which you might like to change- you have written singing lesions instead of lessons.

Thank you for all your hard work.

The biography, the paragraph after the cute picture with the cat - I think it starts 1974.

You know I already think it's brilliant 🙏 Two things....can we have a link from the front page of this site, or it wont be obvious to visitors once this topic slips down. And the other, because some of the pages take a while to load, would it be possible to have one of those 'loading....' notices on the blank page? Just thinking of those folk not on broadband who may think nothing is happening, or even those on broadband who expect pages to appear in an instant. Obviously, I've no idea how easy or difficult it is to do that.

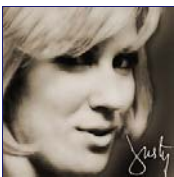

You done good!

The "Home" link on this site (on the upper right hand site) will now refer to the website.

I'll also make this topic sticky so it won't disappear.

It's totally awesome - I can say that unreservedly - because I have had nothing to do with it, ha ha..

Incredibly hard work achieved in an amazingly short space of time - when I saw it Sat - I just couldn't believe just how good it was - from the music clips and the visuals to the fan stories - (my favourite section, I think, Carole and Mary)

Dusty art-wise - there are some temp pics up on the Tim's Gallery page - I will be replacing them with proper ones ASAP. Sorry everyone - pressure of work.

I'm sure Dusty would approve of this sparkling new web resource.

Big hug

Tim xx

That's great Nancy!.....Thank you for thinking of Barbara and !!!.....It's all so true, decades of wonderful music and song Dusty has given to all of us, and giving something back in whatever form, be it Flowers, lighting a candle, a donation to the Royal Marsden, or just visiting a Dusty location and being at one, is something I'm sure we can all do!

Truely wonderful site, only had a quick rush through, kept on hearing 'Moooooovie Star' when trying to watch the 'Spooky' video !!!

I'll have to get my printer working to print the Dustyology section, and have a good long read.

Well done ladies keep up the good work.

See you on April 15th.

A few additions have been made to the website....a new link to the RRHOF, a new DD photo with the OBE, a new Springfields pic. Can't wait to get our special section of the forum for the website. In the meantime, please post your comments and suggestions here.

Looks like we are off to a good start with this thing.

Tom has promised to do a write up for the Exclusively For You section which I hope we will get up in the next week or so.

Love to hear from some of you others about what you'd like to add.

Let's Talk Dusty is a beautiful place. I love going to the site and going to the forum every chance I can. Almost 1 year Aug 15th when I watched Dusty and was introduced from the dvd at the RAH 1979. What does she say when she goes Just water I wish sometimes it was (?) Also all the staff at LTD are the best people in the world. It's like a little family for such a incredible person.
