My first post is a rather technical question, I'm afraid... 😊

According to Czech politician Petr Hannig's online biography, he collaborated with Dusty Springfield sometime in 1968 or 1969. (He's also a singer, songwriter and music producer.) Does anyone know what they might have worked on exactly?

If there are any Czech-speakers here, this is the source: <http://www.petrhannig-rozumni.cz/about/>

I don't know for sure, but from another source I see Petr Hannig worked with John Cameron on BBC TV as an arranger. John Cameron was arranger for Julie Felix TV show on which Dusty and Tom Springfield guested.
