We all know Dusty would be 73 years old now, but when you think of her, how do you picture her?

Do you think of her as a 73 year old?

I must say I never think of her as an old woman, and the picture that comes into my head is the 65/66 'version'.

Of course it may have been different if she hadn't been taken from us so early 😞 , and if she was still with us we may relate more to her current age.

So - how do you picture Dusty ?

I have a very dear friend who is an antique dealer and will turn 86 this year. She is zany, eccentric, outspoken, funny as hell and still dyes her hair red. She wears tons of jewelry (very expensive!), beautiful vintage clothing and says exactly what she thinks. That's how I picture Dusty at 73 and I wish I knew her. ❤️

Dusty didn't like ageing, as she has said several times. But if she was still with us, I imagine her to be a true British eccentric, and probably a crazy cat lady! Maybe even with purple hair! 😊

But I'm with Brian, Dusty for me is mostly the beehive, panda makeup version. It's just so iconic!

The first images of Dusty that always come to mind are these:

For me the older Dusty is like a second Dusty - the same, yet different.

I'm with most of the other posters - I like remembering Dusty at her peak. Another one of my heroes Bob Dylan was born just 2 years after Dusty and is still looking Okay at 71, but I still like to remember the Dylan of the mid 1960's when he was at his pomp.

You might not like it, but think about it ..... , an' if it doesn't click, forgive me. I'm on the back end of a weekend of Rock 'N' Roll debauchery, an' I'm off to bed. 😊

Me, I picture Dusty depending of my feeling of the moment. I can think of her and have in mind a picture from each decade, between 1960s and 1990s. I think sometimes at the look she would have had today and which tv show she could have go. 🤔

I picture Dusty in the 60s in my mind. Like your Dusty in New York avatar, Brian, or like she looked at the airport having been kicked out of South Africa. ❤️

Cor, I love the idea of Dusty having purple hair as an Old lady but hers would actually be on purpose. She Would no doubt be zany and charming and be making cracks About ageing like the late great Phyllis Dillar.

So many images come to mind when I hear Dustys name, mainly from the 60s. I haven't a clue how she would look at 73. I just wish she was still here. 🌹

After Dusty died and I was upset, to put it mildly, another fan said to me "try and imagine her as she was at 59 and not in her 20's". But every picture in my mind was of her in her "60's heyday". So....
