On 6/10/85 Dusty did a solo TV appearance on stage wearing a purple sequin full pant suit with uber-shoulders. Paul Howes describes this event as "Live at her Majesty's". To someone unfamiliar with England what is that? Where is that, and what was speacl about it? 🗨️

Live At Her Majesty's was a Sunday night TV show compered by Jimmy Tarbuck that ran for a few years in the 80's. I remember watching Dusty's performance live and willing her through it, she looked very nervous. It was the first time I had seen her perform Quiet Please and I just loved it (ok, there was an off note at the end, but apart from that!)
