Back in 2001 Maggie Stredder(who did backing vocals for Dusty) published her autobiography The Girl With The Glasses .

Has anyone read it and did Maggie write about working with Dusty?

I have the book Clive, I bought it around 2001 I think. My friend and I met Maggie by arrangement in the lobby of the Opera House in Manchester and she signed the book "Dear Carole and Michael, lovely meeting you. Long live Dusty in our hearts"! It's only a thin book and from memory there's very little (if anything!) in it about Dusty, though there is a picture and a mention of backing her on the TV shows.

Thanks Carole, too bad there aren't a few Dusty anecdotes but it sounds like you have a real collectors item as the signed copy on amazon is £65!
