Hi everyone,

A new fan just joined yesterday. Really have the bug! Having always been something of a tomboy I haven't worn make-up for about 45 years and am trying to recreate that 1960s Dusty look. Can anyone advise me on the best way to get the panda eyes? Have been doing some experimenting today but can't get it right. I already have my blonde beehive wig... As I've said in another post I think I've gone a bit barmy.... Thanks!

That's brilliant thanks Karen. Alien territory for me but I guess a trip to the cosmetics counter tomorrow. Worried about my heavy eyebrows though I may look as if I've stepped out of Priscilla, Queen of the Desert

Hi, look at my thread "Dusty's costume sketches" for clothing idea -- on pg two, if you have Almay products where you live, get the liquid makeup remover or you may never get it all off again! 🤪 I think the second video is closer to authentic IMHO. Don't forget to post some pics of your results, I'd love to see how it goes. Every chance you get, pick a section of the forum and read the archives, they're great fun and so informative. You'll get to know everyone as well! I recommend "getting it right", and "don't forget about me" as two good places to start.

Have fun and welcome aboard! 🤪

Would be interested in seeing the finished results especially as you have the Beehive too!

Plenty of shops to choose from in Birmingham for the eye stuff. Brum is quite near to where I am 🤪

Thanks so much everyone have been having a go and taken few pics but not to be seen in public yet do look like as if am in drag - I know Dusty would have liked that but it's not the look I'm trying to achieve. I haven't got any make-up remover, oh dear, and I'm singing in a church service tomorrow - maybe I should launch into Son of a Preacher Man??

Sounds like a hoot, Jackie! Did you do it? 😊 Nah, maybe take it easy with the old folks. LOL

Post some photos when you feel ready, I'd love to see!

Hi Cor I've taken some photos but I've not the courage to post them! Was mooching round make-up counters this afternoon. Last time I did that was about 1966.

Theres a thread somewhere, members and family photos, have a browse through there, one look at me and you will feel like Cheryl cole LOL, and then maybe if you can pluck up the courage post one of you, pre dusty!

Neil 🙏

😊 Take your time, and work it out. (Dusty did !)

Look for the gal at the make-up counter with the heaviest eye make up and challenge her to help you achieve those panda eyes. 🙏

And by all means post your results. Nothing to be ashamed of here. All in good tribute. 🙏🙏

You were my smile today. 🙏

Thanks for the encouragement Jeffery. Had a go yesterday but put so much black on couldn't get it off and have been going round today looking as if someone has punched me in both eyes. Normally a quick wash and on with a pair of jeans. Yesterday was prancing round the bedroom with blacked eyes, a towering blonde wig and a leopard print dress. Thank-you Dusty for bringing out my feminine side. When I have the courage well post the pics

I blame Dusty for making me buy a pink pearl & shine chap stick! 😊

She even induced me to wear mascara once or twice!! 🙄😂

I'd be up for that Karen, but you'd have to help me with the eyeliner. It'd be a laugh. 😊🙋

Hi Connie.

Tried to get the Almay stuff you suggested but couldn't get any so used something else they recommended. I'm afraid I AM rather an innocent when it comes to all this. W-e-e-e-l-l it didn't work did it! I can't quite work out why I suddenly want to dress up like Dusty I think it's something to do with making my own personal tribute. She's certainly got me in touch with my feminie side...
