

Let's Talk Dusty!

The Ultimate Forum for Dusty Springfield Fans
<http://www.dustyspringfield.org.uk/forum/>

Show appearance & Dancers

<http://www.dustyspringfield.org.uk/forum/viewtopic.php?f=8&t=4677>

Show appearance & Dancers

by jeffery

Page 1 of 1

Posted: Wed Jan 09, 2013 5:36 am

☺ Found this on youtube, and I don't recognize the show. Is it U.S. or U.K. TV ?
What group of dancers is this. It's a little fuzzy. Can you recognize any of the dancers ?
Looking for an expert's opinion. 🙏

Re: Show appearance & Dancers

by daydreamer

Posted: Wed Jan 09, 2013 9:23 am

I believe the show is "Shivaree" Jefferey. Maybe some American folk know more about the show and the dancers.

Re: Show appearance & Dancers

by IWannaBeABluesSinger

Posted: Wed Jan 09, 2013 1:08 pm

I know that the great comic actress Teri Garr got her start dancing on these shows (plus a few Elvis movies). Every now and then I can spot her, but there were a lot of blonde go go dancers back then.

Maggie

Re: Show appearance & Dancers

by kellymuses

Posted: Wed Jan 09, 2013 2:40 pm

Insomnia is good for something. I've been looking through lists of "Shindig!" and "Hullabaloo" episodes and surprisingly, it looks like Dusty never did "Shindig!" but she did do a couple episodes of "Hullabaloo". However, the clip in question seems to be from "Shivaree" as Carole so wisely stated. Dusty appeared on that show twice. This show is totally unfamiliar to me.

Here's a handy list of Dusty's T.V. appearances that may come in handy:

<http://www.tv.com/people/dusty-springfield/>

Re: Show appearance & Dancers

by jeffery

Posted: Wed Jan 09, 2013 11:55 pm

 Yes, and thank you. Now I understand.

Shivaree was an American pop TV program originating in Hollywood in 1965-1966, and hosted by Gene Weed. This explains why I never saw it. Some of those West coast TV shows were never broadcast in the American heartland (Ohio to the East coast). Those dance moves were a dead giveaway. To me they looked totally American.

In fact Maggie you can see Teri Garr performing those exact moves in the T.A.M.I. show DVD (filmed in 1965).

In the special features they tell you which dancer in the routine is her.

Re: Show appearance & Dancers

by kellymuses

Posted: Thu Jan 10, 2013 12:16 am

It was interesting reading the info on tv.com about the shows. Teri Garr was one of the dancers on "Shindig!", while "Hulabaloo" boasted two dancers/choreographers who became quite famous on Broadway: Donna McKechnie and her one time husband Michael Bennett.

I was definitely born too late for these shows. One of my first conscious T.V. memories as a small child was being scared by the camera zooming in and out on Goldie Hawn's painted torso on "Laugh In". Freaked me out.

Re: Show appearance & Dancers

by BornTooLate

Posted: Thu Jan 17, 2013 2:01 am

Someone commented on the video saying "It's Shivaree not Shindig". I always thought it was "Shindig!" because of the dancers, but I also didn't realize their sets and choreography were so similar. Now I feel like I need to go double-check my knowledge and learn the faces of every '60s pop tv dancer so I never make that mistake again.

Re: Show appearance & Dancers

by darren2722

Posted: Thu Jan 17, 2013 9:49 am

kellymuses wrote:

Here's a handy list of Dusty's T.V. appearances that may come in handy:

<http://www.tv.com/people/dusty-springfield/>

Thanks Kelly That's a great List, really Useful.

Re: Show appearance & Dancers

by kellymuses

Posted: Thu Jan 17, 2013 5:34 pm

It is handy, isn't it Darren? I didn't find it on the site until I had spent a good hour or so looking through the episode lists of "Shingdig!" and "Hullabaloo". LOL.