Does anyone know when The Springfields went to America to record in 1962 if they did any TV shows or live dates?

I think they went to Nashville didn't they ? Search things associated with that. Grand Ole Opre, Nashville radio, and east coast colleges.

They went to Nashville on the strength of having the hit with Silver Threads. Reading a couple of articles from that time Dusty says they stopped off in NY on the way there and went on a nationwide radio show with a DJ called Ralph Emery and talked for about 15 minutes. She seemed thrilled that people all over the States could hear them 😊 Tom talked of doing "some stage and TV shows" and Mike said they were visiting "Louisville, Pittsburgh, Columbus, Ohio, Washington, Baltimore and back to New York after meeting DJ's on a TV hour". Mike joined the group in time for this trip because one article says they were too successful and Tim couldn't take up the travelling due to his wife not being in good health.

thanks Carole, Jeffrey and Maggie.

I'd love to find something of these, would be interesting to know for sure when Dusty first appeared on American TV.

I spent most of last evening searching for Ralph Emery Show archives, WSM - radio archives, and the Springfield interview. 🤖 I just wasn't getting anywhere.
