I think it's a kind of midnight blue, but someone correct me if I'm wrong. Don't recall seeing Dusty in black gowns.

I think she wore black on one or two occasions only. 😊

Can't recall having seen these dresses in colour, they could be blue, but they could be red/pinkish also, a colour she liked. 🙄

Having never seen any of the 3 dresses in colour, I can't answer the question I'm afraid. The third dress is one of my all time favourite Dusty gowns. I once asked Pat if she could remember the colour and she struggled but thought the skirt was pale green and there was purple on it somewhere! In my minds eye, I've always imagined the short dark dress (Anna) as being brown and the longer one as being sort of maroon. All in my head of course 😊

Re Carole's comments about the top dress when Dusty sings Twenty-four hours from Tulsa, (on the first show to be broadcast maybe) I think I read somewhere a review which mentioned her appearing in a maroon (or maybe purple) dress - does that ring a bell for anyone?

👤 Thank you, I often wonder what the dresses are really like.

Well Henry, although I don't think I now have a copy of that review, maybe I also read it at sometime and that's why I think of that dress as maroon. Could be.

😊😊 I remember seeing Dusty on The Johnny Carson Show and the dress was yellow and the top was yellow flowers and brown or green leaves and her hair was down in curls if my memory serves me right. 🙌
