Which performance?

These stills are from Dusty's induction into the Rock'n'Roll Hall of Fame in 1999, and were shown with a voice over that presented her career. I can't quite place this performance. Which show is this? And what did Dusty sing there?

It's The Andy Williams Show. http://www.researchvideo.com/footage-li ... -show.html

You may see a black & white version of this medley: <http://www.trilulilu.ro/elenalalla/f5f5acaf02c636>

I hope I'm correct!

It's indeed the medley from the Andy Williams Show (1970). You're incredible, Samuel! 🤩👏

What a difference a little colour can make. I need to dig out this show and see if I have it in colour or not. Or maybe Samuel can tell me that, too? 😊

Oh, Corinna! I'm touched that you took the time to compose that! 🥰

🌸 Thank you. 🌸

I do have a very bad copy of this performance on video and in b/w I think, but the fact that the Hall of Fame has it in such good quality, always leaves me hoping that it will make an appearance on some Andy Williams Show DVD. I think all (as far as I know) of Dusty's appearances on the AW Show have survived, I'd really love to have the duet Andy and Dusty did of Pretty Blue Eyes, she has great comic timing, matches Andy perfectly. It's from the same show as the long Blues medley with the Osmonds.....I need that whole show!

Carole I think the look of love medley above is on this (very expensive) 8 DVD set of Andy Wiliams not sure about the other performances.

I've found mine and it is in b/w too. If I had $ 94.98 to spare, I'd buy that AW DVD set... 🥰

Samuel, you're welcome! 🙌

This medley + Silly Silly Fool were on Youtube in very good quality, a few months ago.

Did someone keep the clips? I've not been enough quick to download them. 🙄

I believe I saved them. I'm not at home right now, though, so I can't check. Remind me next week, Samuel!
