London Marathon

by pat.dunham » Sun Apr 21, 2013 9:14 am

It's a beautiful morning in London as 35000 + runners stand in total silence to remember their fellow marathon athletes. All are wearing a black ribbon and some, who ran in Boston, are wearing the same vests. There will be runners supporting Dusty's charity the Royal Marsden.

Let us hope that it will be uneventful and that everyone will enjoy the day. But be sure all our US and especially Bostonian friends you are not forgotten.

I'd rather see the world the way it used to be.....
..I'm goin' back.

Well Said Pat.  Hope and Pray all goes Well and smoothly Today. Good Luck Everyone competing

So pleased and relieved they didn't cancel. Thinking of all in Boston
I Couldn't Ask For More
