Mel C lists her top 10 female singers in a feature today. Dusty is listed at number 6 with a nice piccie!

It's funny - but what does Mel C know about singing?!

True, Dusty is in there, along with Tina Turner, Shirley Bassey, Adele and Amy Winehouse, but to include the likes of Beyonce and Madonna as great singers is ridiculous.

Anyone can make a top ten list of 'names'

Fortunately not many can 'sing' like Mel C or The Spice Girls 😄😄😄😄

I think the article is actually about singers who have inspired Mel C, rather than a list of the worlds top singers. I don't mind Mel C that much, she was the best of that bunch and she can at least hold a tune.

Mel was just listing her fav singers, it is her personal choice and we all like different singers for different reasons. I don't think you should be so hard on her uncle Brian

Yes and I think she did say singers that had inspired her. Actually her list included quite a few great singers didn't they, and it is hard to fit all into a list of 10. I think I'd need at least 30.
