"The Weekly news" has a web site, not showing Dusty at moment. www.twns.co.uk. It's part of a large publishing company which has many familiar magazines. Not sure but you may be able to order a copy thru your local newsagent. I'd rather see the world the way it used to be.....

I just tried to order from your link Mike but it's now saying "out of stock". I guess there must have been a rush on!

Oh dang! Sold out already? Dusty's well worth it, though.

I was also interested in the article on thinking oneself thin!

I managed to find a couple of copies on the supermarket shelf this morning. It was amongst the specialised newspapers rather than the magazines. It's to coincide with the 50th anniversary of YDHTSYLM and is an interview with Mari Wilson about Dusty and why she's a fan.

My partner and I took my brother out to lunch today to mark his birthday this weekend. He, brother that is, turned up with a present for me. Yes, you've guessed it, a copy of The Weekly News, which he had spotted in the newsagent's.

Unfortunately copy did not arrive and unlikely to now. Shop annoyed as they have been charged. They said all copies are destroyed as soon as next appears
