More on The Grammy Award

■ by Ralph » Sun Apr 11, 2010 10:03 pm

Hello again.

I got a card from my friend, Nancy Traynor, in Vermont, this weekend, who brought up the possibility of nominating Dusty for this year's (2010) Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award. It seems that the person in charge of accepting and coordinating the nomination process for this award has changed. That's why our e-mails were returned. The good news is that the Grammy committee has extended the nomination process for this award until April 15th, so for those of you who were unsuccessful and would like to try again, we have until then to send in our nomination requests.

The new e-mail is:

jennifer.dugas@grammy.com

I had already sent my nomination in via snail mail, but I am going to also contact Ms. Dugas with it and may even give her a call this week. Her office phone at the Grammy foundation in Santa Monica, CA is 310-392-3777. By the way, Nancy did speak to her directly and she (Jennifer) is a big Dusty fan and is very willing to put Dusty's name forward for this award if there seems to be a big enough interest. Pens ready?

Thanks for the update, Ralph!

Yes, please email everyone!

You don't have to write an essay, just write that you would like to suggest Dusty to be given a posthumous lifetime achievement award for the wonderful musical legacy she's left us.
