NME PSBs WHIDTDT (#p103871)

by Tim » Tue Sep 25, 2012 7:28 pm

Hi All

Hope this hasn't already been posted.

http://www.nme.com/blog/index.php?blog= ... more=1&c=1 (http://www.nme.com/blog/index.php?blog=1&p=12679&title=the_25_reasons_we_actually_love_the_pet_&more=1&c=1)

Not sure how to make an easy link on my iPad so you may need to cut n paste the above in your browser

25 reasons to love the Pet Shop Boys' Actually, and the first 3 are about Dusty?! 🤔 I like it! 🙌

I'll copy and paste here for those who are too lazy to click the link. 😊

1 It features possibly the greatest pop song in history

I'm talking about 'What Have I Done To Deserve This?' by Pet Shop Boys and Dusty Springfield. We can chat "hooks" and "unusual structure" all you want, but this song just has that thing: before it's even finished, you already want to play it again. It's touching too, which is impressive considering it's about about a "major capitalist" (her) and a "pathetic feeble wreck" (him).

2 It brought back Dusty Springfield

Dusty was done before 'What Have I Done To Deserve This?' Put it this way: her last single had been released by Peter Springfellow. When she finally said yes, the duet gave her a major comeback. It reached number two on both sides of the Atlantic and re-introduced the world to that voice: huskier, sure, but still magical.

3 When the Pets first met Dusty, she was wearing black leather

Or maybe "a pink shell suit and Reeboks". Neil Tennant and Chris Lowe can't agree. But both outfits sound on point.

As most people know, I LOVE Pet Shop Boys. They brought me to Dusty too and even if you don't like their music, you've got to love them for loving her! ❤️

I liked the PSB's when they released West End Girls and all the other singles and then when they linked up with Dusty I liked them even more 😊 yes we love the PSBs. I think they have evolved over the years into the peoples favs. loved Glastonbury when they had Dusty on the big screen. I share Dustys feelings about " west end girls" and the beat to it . one of my fav songs is "numb" 🍷
