Was The LP in good condition? Good to see a compilation including Won't Be Long which has always been a favourite of mine and sadly neglected on compilations.

The album's on its way to me, Karl. I haven't actually got it yet.

"Ev'rything's coming up" can do no harm to my ears, to me it's the best she's ever done!

I use to love All Cried out. I wanted to cover this record when I came to Australia however the artists management didn't think it was right for the singer. Many managers aren't very musical and most with no taste. I suppose they are a necessary evil same as agents! Unless you get really good ones. I would still like to do it sometime however I haven't produced anything for years now.

Thanks Frans,
I see you on Discogs once in a while. Thank you for posting some of The Echoes records..

Cheers Douggie  Dusty
