Has anyone any news of a new DVD coming from the States to the UK in September 2009? Apparently it will consist of TV appearances, presumably done in the USA.

It was previewed at Dusty Day, Reelin' In The Years. It'll be worth the price just for All Cried Out from the Sullivan show.

Ontmoeting met is Dutch for An encounter with. Are these clips in any way related to Holland?

Hi Frans

I think they are the clips from a Dutch TV Show, Dusty wears that pink dress and does a little dance in IOWBWY.

PS Russ Conway was a Popular UK Piano Player of the time.

Thanks for the info, Tom. I remember Russ for his interpretation of "Lesson One".

I thought I'd bump this thread up as the new DVD is nearing release date and repeat the post what I also posted on the snippets thread.

The company who have produced the DVD are having a launch "do" on Tuesday 1st September in Chiswick, London. Simon is running a competition for tickets if anyone is interested in going.

I'm really looking forward to this one coming out. The previews at DD looked really good.

Are you going along, Carole?

I'm not sure Will. I've been invited but I'm not sure it's worth the effort and expense just a couple of days before I go away. But you never know, I may change my mind 😊 I'm looking forward to seeing the booklet that comes with the DVD, Annie has written the liner notes, so no worries there 😊

Annie has written the liner notes? Fabulous news indeed! I am really looking forward to this DVD - the tracklisting is very tantalising to say the least... 😊

There are a few of changes to the list that Tom posted above in that "All I See Is You" from Bandstand isn't on the final product. There is a fault on the original copy and so they left it off. Shame that they couldn't have got hold of the BBC copy in it's place as the song was a hit for Dusty in America. But to add to the list is "The Look of Love" (in the white pant suit), "Brand New Me" from David Frost and "Shake" from the poll concert, and I'm really thrilled about that one. Dusty just performs it with such power and energy.
