On November 22nd, sometime between 1 and 4 p.m. GMT The Tony James Show on BBC Radio Cumbria will air an hour-long tribute to Dusty Springfield. Part one will feature Tina Oberman who does a Dusty tribute act, and Part two will feature an interview with your humble Dusty fan here.

Join us live on streaming audio or listen up to a week after the show. Click on Listen Live (If listening after the fact, then click on The Tony James Show)

http://www.bbc.co.uk/cumbria/local\_radio/

Many thanks to Tony-- a big Dusty fan-- and his staff for helping to spread the Dusty love!

Thanks Nancy, I might just tune in 😊 I'm sure you did a brilliant job with your heart in your mouth 😊 I'm not sure about the Tina part though, I trust she's only being interviewed and not going to sing. I mean what would be the point of that? I haven't seen her since she came up and performed at Michael's 50th.

So far, so good. Tina came across well and said a lot of positive things. One thing she got wrong though.....Dusty was not a smoker in the 60's as she intimated. The huskiness Tina is trying to reproduce, was perfectly natural to Dusty, nothing to do with ciggies. Hope Nancy is on in the next 15 mins, before I have to go out. Come on Nancy Three Dusty tracks up to now. Make that four!

I think I'm glad I slept through it, LOL. Allison hasn't arrived yet and we are going to listen to it together....either that or tomorrow also with Lu and Paula. Glad they're keeping the show online for a week!

I SO much appreciate that you all tuned in and your kind words!! When speaking of Dusty or representing her in any way, one naturally wants to do well. Whilst I'll never meet her perfectionist standards, if I have added to anyone's enjoyment or gotten a few more people to listen more to her music, that is good enough for me.

BTW I know that the show ends with IOWTBWY, but if they'd left in the clip where he asks my favorite song and ended with that it would have been ALL I SEE IS YOU.

It is up Nancy, I've just caught up from where I left it. After IOWTBWY and signing you off, he played WHIDTDT. He also thanked Carole and Paul for their comments! I wonder if Paul could be my tennis umpire friend as his mum lives in Cumbria and someone else wrote in to ask if it could be possible Amy Winehouse copied her look from Dusty! I hope not. The beehive there owes more to the Ronettes with the voice capturing the essence of Dusty.

Thanks so much, Neil. I was really nervous; I think it's one of those things where you just go into overdrive to get through it....like you hear about a mother being able to pick up a car that has landed on a child.

Oh, Carole, I'll have to listen today and hear the people that called or wrote in. I bet it was Paul the linesman. Didn't you see him at Wimbeldon this year? I remember him from Dusty Day, a very nice man.

This is the response I got back from Tony's assistant at BBC Cumbria:

Hello

Yes we used to put the show online for a week, but we have now started streamlining all our shows and there just isn't the room to keep them longer than a day I'm afraid.

Sadly there is no way to put it online again.

I have no objection to you copying the CD for your friends and family - as long as you make no profit, and they understand that it is not to be used in any other way apart from private listening at home.

All the best

Steve
