One last Album? (#p148973)

by pat.dunham » Tue Mar 18, 2014 7:18 pm

I am surprised that Universal have not thought of issuing a "duets" album. Dusty sang with lots of fellas and the odd girl., not forgetting the duets with just Tom(S). Some of course are available on the compilations, but with todays technology I'm sure they could lift music from clips of TV shows. Maybe include the ensemble pieces she did with Andy Williams and the Beatles medley with Burt, etc. I think there could be quite a selection of all the genres of music she did. Copyright may prevent some of this.What say you?

Think this would be a great idea Pat and I'm surprised too that it hasn't happened. Petula Clark did one a few years ago combining TV performance duets and studio ones and I think it worked quite well.

Yes it'd be a lovely idea Pat. Fraser did a cd called The Two of Us, including 'This Could be the Start of something Big' with Georgie Fame, 'Brand New Me ' with Andy Williams, 'Baby Baby Baby with Tom Jones and 'Private Number ' Jimmy Ruffin. Like you point out there could be copyright issues but I for one love the idea.

If such a project did materialize then I would hope the powers-that-be include the B.J.

Thomas/Dusty "duet" version of "The Other Side of Life" and a "duet" version of MFSB and Dusty "Something for Nothing" mixing their orchestration with her voice. Definitely include the duos and group numbers from 1970's Another Evening with Burt Bacharach special. One can dream...

I agree Joe, would be the right opportunity to release the Dusty/BJ creation.

Also maybe the other 'put together' duets with Petula Clark, Anne Murray and Sugababes could be included.

Must admit when those projects were first mooted I was wary but on balance I'm glad they happened.

Question is where to stop with this process. My fear would be if Universal were putting together a duets CD their temptation would be to create more posthumous duets with currently popular acts of their choosing.

If someone with a respect for Dusty's legacy (e.g. Paul Howes or Jim Pierson) was acting as executive producer of any project I would be happy.

I might buy it so long as it doesn't include 'Upside Down' & 'Ain't No Mountain High Enough' with doodah & whatsit 🗨️ I don't think that it will ever happen. Too many variables involved which would be a legal minefield!

John is it Ain't No Mountain High Enough with Engelbert or Michael Ball you're not keen on?

Both versions Clive and 'Upside Down' with Tom - truly awful 😞
