She will tell you more about this clip herself, but here's our own Liz aka Cardiff Bluesgirl chatting away with Michael Ball on Radio 2!

I dont seem to have a clip on the thread, so I suppose its my computer settings or something. 😞

thanks for all your efforts in making it available, I thought it might be nice for the new members to hear. 😊

You need to install Flash to see/hear it, Liz. Maybe someone can help you with it?

You need to have Adobe Flash Player installed, Donella. It's free software. You can download it here: <http://www.adobe.com/shockwave/download...kwaveFlash>

No wait a minute ! I have installed Google Chrome, and that includes this version of Adobe Flash Player, but I see no link here either. There's only one page here, and the only link is the download for flash player. No link to Liz, and Micheal Ball interview. 😊 Huh ?

Like Donella says, "I can't even see a link !"

Click on the download link for Flash Player that I've posted. Does it say, "You have the latest version of Flash Player installed"? If not, install it in order to see the mp3 player here.

Well I am glad to know someone else is having the same problem as me. Glad because it tells me that I am not doing something wrong!

Like Jeffrey I know I have the most up to date version of Flash player installed! Indeed, as I said the other day, I uninstalled Flash player then downloaded and installed the most recent version. That way I knew I had a clean copy of the player.

But the mp3 link still does not show! 🙄

In general, Flash works fine on my computer. Maybe it is my virus protection. Not sure! It is a bit of a mystery. 🤔🤔

As an experiment I just switched from Firefox to Internet Explorer and couldn't see the link either. 😞😞

A few months ago I was having trouble viewing youtube vids on this site when using Internet Explorer and Google Chrome and Corrina came up with the idea that It might be A Problem with these providers. 😊🤔 So possibly there's some conflict with compatibility???? Anyway you should hopefully see the link if you switch to Firefox,???? it doesn't have to be permanent and you can switch back easily enough and experiment with what works best for you on Internet Explorer, Google Chrome & Firefox 😊

Please

Hope this works. 😊

Such a mystery? 😞

When I'm on the Macs at work the link is there, but on my PC at home there is nothing. 🤔

I'm confused 🤔 I downloaded Flash Player, but the link is still not there.
Alternating to Firefox was suggested. What has Firefox got to do with it? Isn't that something for Macs?

Know what you mean Jeffrey. 🤔 I'm no expert but all I know is for me personally certain things work better and are faster on Google Chrome,(Facebook Especially 🤔)and Lets Talk Dusty for me is perfect on Firefox - no problems at all with the youtube vids, photos, mp3's mp4's or the flashplayer. Whereas with Internet Explorer i've had problems with both Facebook and LTD.

No-ones paying me From Firefox I promise. 🤔

Thanks Darren,
I'm going to try Firefox tonight.

In the meantime I sat down at one of our Macs at work, 🤪 and finally had a listen .

Liz your voice is so soothing. 🐼 At first I thought I was listening to Dusty speaking. It was a great interview, and I chuckled at M.B. referring to us as well I havent been able to get the clip and since I changed computers I havent been able to download from utube. I have been on internet explorer linked with google as my home page. well this morning I opened up google chrome and on there I have the clip and on utube I have download again. dont like the layout of it but at least its there. I wonder if the two are clashing or something?? still I was able to hear the clip on there myself.

"the Dusty Springfield Appreciation Society" 🤪 .

glad its been of interest and Michael was lovely to talk to..he loves Dusty too.. 🐼

🐼 Yep, that worked for me too Liz !

I'll have to make G/Chrome my browser, and learn to live with it. 🐼

Brilliant job Liz, first time I've heard this.

I get it alright on Internet Explorer too. Every day is a challenge on your computer.
