If it is, they're jumping the gun a bit, it's not finished yet!

It is the new one because it says 1 feb 2007. I agree! Way too early to be selling now.

Rats, I was hoping to get it for a Xmas present. Oh well, maybe my Valentine will remember me.

Anyone familiar with the Woman of Repute website will probably have read this interview before, but as it is kind of hidden away on the site some may not. It's an interesting interview with Paul Howes about the first edition of his book.

Er, at this point we are a forum and do not have an attached website. And I agree Woman of Repute is fantastic; I've used it as a source in some of my graduate papers. Speaking of which, bye now.

Woman of Repute was the first site I found when I first started searching for Dusty on the web, it definitely is an excellent site. Second one I found was A Girl Called Dusty and then I never looked back 😊

Well errr what Nancy said!

Hey Nancy, are we gonna make an attached website? If we are, can I help? 😊

Although I love both the Woman of Repute and A Girl Called Dusty websites, they are rarely updated anymore which is a pity.

I also love them sites and I noticed that. I E-mail the runner of a girl called dusty about the link for the T.V ad but he never changed it.

Matt I think they mean it was the fifth book published about Dusty, not all by Paul Howes (the others were by Lucy O'Brien, David Evans, Edward Leeson and Penny Valentine)

January 30th! No, it's not completed yet, though getting there. Hopefully the next Bulletin will give us more of an idea. The foreword in the new edition is done by Pet Clark.
