A bit of a nostalgia trip through some 1960's RT's covers. You may just have to be over a certain age to appreciate them, but there are 3 Dusty covers in there.

I think the 1966 one is especially cute!

What can you tell us about this magazine? It obviously wasn't just about the radio?

Well it's all right to go on and live your life, so come out into the light....

Yes, Thanks for the link Carole!.....Nancy, the Radio Times was launched in the 1920's to provide listings for the then new BBC Radio service.
When TV was launched in the UK shortly before World War 2, it naturally provided the TV listings too (what there was of it!)
The magazine remained largely unchanged through the forthcoming decades after the War, Rules prohibited it from listing Commercial (ITV) listings when it was launched in the mid-50's, and Commercial TV had and still has it's own official mag 'TV Times'
In 1989 rules were relaxed and both the Radio Times and TV times could print all TV listings (and was the springboard for several other TV publications).
When this happened it wasn't worth buying both mags so I opted for the Radio Times, many interesting articles to be had these days.....I wouldn't miss it!
