

The Archives of Let's Talk Dusty!

Home | Profile | Active Topics | Active Polls | Members | Search | FAQ

Username: Password:

Save Password

Forgot your Password?

All Forums

Let's Talk Dusty! The Forum

Don't Forget About Me

Sad news

Forum Locked Topic Locked

Printer Friendly

Previous Page

Author

Topic

Page: of 2

Mark

I've got a good thing

United Kingdom
5309 Posts

Posted - 09/06/2007 : 20:02:53

I'm glad everything went as Fraser would have wanted it too, I was thinking of him all day on Friday.....would love to see the Flowers....

Thank you for everything Will....

all the best

Mark

mssdusty

I've got a good thing

USA
5821 Posts

Posted - 09/06/2007 : 21:43:10

THANK YOU FROM ME TOO
MARY

I only think of the day I Met Dusty and MY pains go away.IT's Great!

Rob

Administrator

United Kingdom
4205 Posts

Posted - 09/06/2007 : 21:54:00

Thank you Will

ROB

Will

Wasn't born to follow

United Kingdom
7603 Posts

Posted - 09/06/2007 : 22:09:53

Hi again everyone -

I've posted my recollections of Fraser's funeral on my website and have included the photos of the flowers at the Beacon of Hope Monument and a PDF copy of the Eulogy I read - you can click on this and either read it in your browser or download and save it.

<http://web.mac.com/digitographer>

Click on Fraser's photo on the opening page.

Will x

Edited by - Will on 09/06/2007 22:28:35

Rob
Administrator
★★★★★

United Kingdom
4205 Posts

Posted - 09/06/2007 : 22:38:01

Thank you again. I am much moved by the eulogy. I knew he was legendary with regard to his knowledge of Dusty of course but i feel priveliged to learn more of his life and achievements.

ROB

humboldt
I'll try anything
★★

United Kingdom
1704 Posts

Posted - 10/06/2007 : 00:00:09

Thank you Will.

John

onemoresipofwine
I start counting

United Kingdom
7 Posts

Posted - 10/06/2007 : 00:07:36

When we came out after the service the sun was shining, and when we where sitting with Heather and the rest of the people at the Rembrandt a wasp flew into the window of all windows, and sat on a flower that was by the side of Heather and stayed there a few seconds before going on to the other flower, Heather smiled and said "I wonder if thats Fraser" we all laughed, what a lovely lady. Hope you are at peace now Fraser.

Tinkle x allherfaces Administrator

★★★★★

USA
14235 Posts

Posted - 10/06/2007 : 12:55:11

Thank you for sharing these, Will. They are very touching. My heart goes out to you, Carole G, and Heather.

Nancy

Cas19
Wasn't born to follow
★★★★★

8313 Posts

Posted - 10/06/2007 : 17:51:52

Thank you Will, I was very apprehensive that I would not know anyone at the funeral but I neednt have worried, from the moment I saw that lovely smile of yours...quickly followed by the tears..you made me feel as though I had always known you. Heather too what a remarkable lady...so strong.. so lovely with a great sense of humour, also the equally lovely, funny Owen an absolute pleasure to meet you all. The day was very emotional and there were tears,laughter and memories of a lovely kind and caring friend I had in Fraser. Love Casxxxx

mssdusty
I've got a good thing
★★★★★

Posted - 10/06/2007 : 17:55:58

OH WOW CAS THAT IS REALLY LOVELY MARY

I only think of the day I Met Dusty and MY pains go away.IT's Great!

USA
5821 PostsLaura Administrator
★★★United Kingdom
3075 PostsPosted - 10/06/2007 : 18:35:41

Thank you for telling us how it went, those who attended. Heather must have been really touched by you guys, sounds like he had a really nice send off...

Love, Laura xx

http://web.mac.com/mused_violetfly

Will
Wasn't born to follow
★★★★★United Kingdom
7603 PostsPosted - 10/06/2007 : 19:47:06

Cas, I just read your message and the tears are flowing again, and I thought I was doing well today.

Thankyou ever so much for your kind words and as I told you on Friday, I was so happy to meet you at long last and to see so clearly the qualities Fraser admired in you. Heather was absolutely thrilled that you were able to come to the funeral and to the reception. I went back to check on the flowers later that evening and all was well.

I've spent the last couple of hours making a memorial card for Fraser. I have some printed copies and I wanted you to have one; if you want to email me at [address removed] we can arrange that. I will also put a PDF version of the card on my website in a little while in case anyone here would like a copy to print out.

Thankyou for your kindness on Friday, Cas - it meant a great deal.

Lots of love to you..

Will x

Will

"..To this day when they announce me as Dusty Springfield I stand backstage and think myself into her personality.."

Edited by - Will on 28/04/2008 18:56:01

Tim
Where am I going?
★★★United Kingdom
3422 PostsPosted - 11/06/2007 : 18:41:47

I only met Fraser a couple of times but this year I spent quite a bit of time talking to him at this year's Dusty Day. He was such a lovely guy and made a lasting impression on me, despite my not knowing him very long. I have been thinking about him a lot over the last couple of weeks.

Thank you for sharing this day Will - my sympathy and respect goes to all who loved a very special man - we will all remember him in our own way and will keep those memories safe in our hearts and that will keep his spirit with us all here in the present and the future.

Take care Will.

Tim

go in back
Little by little
★Posted - 13/06/2007 : 03:48:14

United Kingdom
519 Posts

I drove to Cardiff on Friday playing my Dusty CDs. As my route took me past Henley I took a minor detour and left some flowers (which brought about 2 wonderful 'Dusty Moments' which I shall put in the relevant thread).

At 10:55am I was going to go in the church and light a candle in Fraser's memory but unfortunately it was in use and you couldn't go inside so I sat on the bench behind Dusty's marker and said a quiet prayer for him instead.

daydreamer
Moderator
★★★★★

Posted - 13/06/2007 : 07:39:43

At the time of Fraser's funeral I was up in the mountains around Deia in the north of Majorca. It is incredibly beautiful there and my thoughts were with Fraser and the people back home. We were in touch and I knew how the day was going. There's something about beautiful locations that always make me sad for the friends who have passed and will never get to experience those places again.

Carole x

"Since you went away, I've been hanging around...."

Isparks18
Little by little
★

Posted - 14/06/2007 : 15:06:19

Such nice sentiments expressed here on the day of Fraser's funeral. Made me feel better knowing that so many people were thinking of him at that time and remembering him so fondly. He certainly made an impression that will not be forgotten.

Linda

USA
132 Posts

Iceblink
Little by little
★

Posted - 30/08/2007 : 00:31:56

USA
268 Posts

Thanks to this man I can hear Dusty singing Motown. I hope he's resting up there with Dusty.

Page: 2 of 2

Topic

Previous Page

Forum Locked Topic Locked

Jump To:

Printer Friendly

The Archives of Let's Talk Dusty! © 2006-2009 Nancy J. Young, Laura Howard, Rob Wilkins, Corinna Muller

