Simple Game (#p29168)

by humboldt » Fri Aug 06, 2010 11:46 pm

Shock, horror! I've just realised that I am missing a Motown song that Dusty covered. It's the Four Tops hit 'Simple Game' that was written by Mike Pinder of the Moody Blues. Can anyone please help with a mp3? I've never heard Dusty sing this.

Thanks. 😊

I forgot Dusty covered this. I'd love to hear it too!

"A Simple Game" bombed in the US, barely making the Hot 100. The Tops exited Motown soon after. Great song; a very heavy record.

From one source or another, I've received copies of many of Dusty's live recordings, but as far as I'm aware, this one hasn't surfaced. It certainly hasn't reached me but I guess someone in the States at the time may have stuck a microphone to the telly.

I read about it in the 'bible' last night. Heaven knows how I had overlooked it before. Shame on me - lol!

I didn't know about this either... In fact I had to look up the clip to remind myself of the tune. 🤔

I must admit that of all the 'Tops' tunes I would'nt have had this one down for a Dusty cover. 🤔

Oh my Carole, what a rare treat. I have never seen this before. What a wonderful song it is and of course the 4 Tops were amazing. I can actually hear Dusty singing this. Would be great if the clip would surface. Perhaps one day eh! 😊

The things you find when you read the bible.... 🙏 Interesting choice, I guess Dusty liked the message of the song. And the tune too, of course! 🙏

OMG I love that Lambretta! Let's go for a spin Karen!! 🙏 It's similar to a white one I had back in the day. Wish I had it now!!

Yes it would be good to hear Dusty's version of this. 😊

And Kathy that would be great, so much fun, who's driving ? 🙏

Oh, I love The Four Tops! 😊 I also hope that I will hear her version of "A Simple Game" one day! 🙏
I think she did a lovely version of this song by the Four Tops
