We know of the song 'Dusty Springfield' by Blossum Dearie but I wondered if anyone else had ever heard the song 'Dusty' by a Spanish group called 'Souvenir'. They record in French and I bought their EP CD about 5 years ago. It's a pretty song, and even though I couldn't understand the lyrics, it was obviously about Dusty as the liner notes had five different pictures in a pull out, which meant you could change the cover to whichever of the five songs you chose. I think it's possible to hear a short clip on Amazon and you can see the French lyrics here.....
