While I was on the cruise one afternoon Dusty decided to watch the tape of her appearance on The Dating Game. I took some photos of her watching and thought I would share some with you. Do you like? I think I may have a few more, if you do.

Do you have a favorite? I think no. 10 would make a nice avatar.

She was 28 or 29...that is pretty young. I have a few more I could post, if you'd all like to see them. I think she looks terrific.

They're really good! If I have to pick a fave, I'd go for the last one.

They're so arty, Nancy! Very creative!

I've made new avatars out of some of them, check out Dusty141-146! (Just give me a minute to make them. 😊)

This entire appearance is so ironic.... Now.... if only she had been comfortable in her own skin.... and if only the world were not so full of hatred.

She looks cute as a button however!

It is gorgeous, Sophie, and so is Dusty, in addition to being cute as a button.

Michael, I'm wondering if you saw the thread from a while back about Dusty getting out of her date.

(Paula, you may recall it here and/or in the powerpoint presentation.)

In fact, Paula I will never forget your quip when Dusty asked Bachelor #1 what he would do if he were stranded on a desert island with a harem of girls: "That's your fantasy, Dusty!" Excuse me, ya'll if I'm getting too postmodern, but rather than depress me, Dusty's appearance inspires me....she so creatively played the game and wore her mask, got the publicity, and blew off the date in the end.

Of course, I'd love to imagine who Dusty might have liked to "date", but that she could pull this off as a typical straight girl is really a tour de force performance!

She could pull it off because she was an absolute professional playing a part, in the same way that she could act out any of her songs whether they related to her or not. And good on her. Great stills and lovely collage 🙏

Beautiful collage, Sophie! Really good shots.

In a homophobic world, you better be good at playing the 'het' part, and Dusty sure was.
