Dear Dusty Fans

I can never thank you enough for your constant support throughout 'The One & Only' What an incredible time I've been having these last 6 weeks! Knowing how much Dusty means to all of you, I feel so very grateful that you've welcomed me into your community so openly.

Singing those great songs - and relearning them in such detail - was a fantastic opportunity for me, especially with the technical help I received from Simon Bell and Carrie & David Grant. I must also thank Carole Gibson and Jane Northam for all their endlessly useful Dusty Knowledge. I know there is still more to be done; I can still get closer with my impression. But now I really am beginning to feel the emotions Dusty brings out in her devoted fans; so I thank you all for the immeasurable help you too have provided.

I will certainly be staying in touch with you all through this site, and looking forward to meeting you soon. Life is so hectic right now, but I will answer your many hundreds of emails asap!

Thank you all for everything so far - this is just the beginning!

Much love and every best wish to you,

Katy Setterfield x

Katy, our community is very supportive of each other and we are pleased that you have joined us. 😊

It was a pleasure to watch your portrayal of Dusty on the One and Only get better and better with each performance. (For most of us your rendition of All I See Is You) blew us away. We could see how hard you worked and how much you loved Dusty and her music. You have a great talent and "believe me, believe me" the thanks works both ways. Thank you for the wider exposure you have given Dusty's music and thank you for introducing another generation of fans to Dusty and her songs.

Hi Katy -

It has been a pleasure to watch you and as Kathy noted, your performance of All I See Is You was just magnificent. That night, this song instantly became one of my favourite Dusty songs. Just beautiful.

Dusty would, I think, be very proud of you :)

Hi Katy - You have at last managed to come up for air, albeitly briefly! I reiterate everyone's comments of how wonderful your performances were throughout the series, and looking forward to seeing you at Dusty Day before they "whisk you away", to wow the other side of the water....or in the words of a Dusty song before you "Roll Away". Your future certainly promises to be "life in its glory".

Hi Katy, it's your LTD Superfan here 🤩 The show caused such excitement around here as you went from strength to strength. I know that for me personally, the whole thing has been an absolutely amazing experience and one that I'll never forget. Who would have thought that that day in the crummy little theatre in Hoxton, would lead to an ending as fabulous as this? It wasn't just an incredible journey for you, it was for us too, seeing you get more and more confident in the costumes and with the hand gestures, not to mention those songs that could terrify a lesser singer. It's been absolutely fabulous and now we just await news of when the Vegas stint will begin, in the hope that some of us can get there to experience that too! And can I just say,.....missing you and the rest of the gang already!

Another thing Katy, as a direct result of your performances on the show, right this moment there are seven Dusty CD's in the Amazon Female Vocalist top 100, four of them in the top 30. So thank you for reminding people of what they've been missing 🙏

It's great to see you here, Katy.

Thank you for all you've done for Dusty's music.

You have grown so much in your performances--each one just got better and better. Now you're a real star.

I've only gotten to see you on youtube, so I hope to make it to Vegas to see you there. Let us know the dates when you have them!

Congratulations again, and if you want a different picture of yourself on the homepage of the website, just let me know!
