The bonus DVD of British Invasion (#p18950)

by neonouille » Sat May 15, 2010 9:30 pm

http://www.reelintheyears.com/british ... index.html (<http://www.reelintheyears.com/britishinvasion/index.html>)

Someone has the bonus disc 🤔 Because I would like to have some details about the performances. Maybe it's from Bandstand (except the two last).

Thank you in advance. 🌹

I would also love to know more about the source of the bonus performances.

I already have the Dusty DVD from this collection so what a shame I would have to buy all the other DVDs just to get the bonus Dusty footage!

hi there 😊

I have the bonus disc in question, the performances are from Bandstand and there's two performances from the Engelbert Humperdinck show (Everybody Gets To Go To Moon and I Wanna Be A Free Girl) there is also an interview at the beginning of the disc of Dusty being interviewed by two reporters just after arriving in Australia.

There are also extended interviews with Madeline, Simon and Burt.

The rest of the disc is made up of performances by Herman's Hermits and interviews with Peter Noone and Gerry Marsden.

Thanks for that info, Anita – I am sure at least a few of us are quite envious of your DVD possession! 😊

It's on eBay now for US $24.99, in case anyone's interested...

I'm sure that Simon told me a while back that there was nothing on the bonus discs that wasn't on the proper one...except for other artists, so I never bothered looking for it.

Hi Corinna

that disc on ebay isn't the bonus disc, its a promo for the trailers just so people don't bid for it and get ripped off.

Very confusing with all these different discs. Thanks for straightening this out, Anita!

Update:

I saw a brand new copy of the 5 DVD Box Set and snatched it up quickly - cannot wait to see Dusty sing "Everybody Gets To Go To The Moon" on Engelbert 😊 😊

It's such a gorgeous performance! 🍷 🍷 🍷

Is there anyone who hasn't seen it who would like to? If someone can walk me through the process of extracting the audio and video from the DVD and posting it somewhere that won't get me into "mishaps" then I will do my best 😊

Hi Kyles. I never saw this performance in high quality. I would like to see it of course.

The only process I know is this one. Maybe the words French to English won't be good, but I will try.

First, go on "computer" (or the place you can see the DVD player)

Second, right-click on the DVD player and open.

Now, if it's like me, you are supposed to have AUDIO_TS and VIDEO_TS.

Click on VIDEO_TS. Now find the files with the video and copy them on the desktop. They are easy to find, because they are big.

It supposed to work. Give me news.

Sadly it did not work 🙄

I was able to extract the audio using DVD Audio Extractor, though. If anyone would like a HQ mp3 of "Everybody Gets To Go To The Moon" then please advise!

Also, if anyone can guide me toward extracting the synced audio and video then please feel free to do so 😊

I've spent the last few hours Googling various DVD audio and video extractors (and dodged a few potentially threatening downloads along the way!) but to no avail. I know it can be done so it's just a matter of finding the right tutorial so I can get to it 😞

I remember, this performance was on Youtube by DustysGotSoul but the video quality was very not good. I will try to find another way to help you Joe. Good luck!

Maybe you should try Magic DVD Ripper, Joe. They say it's a fully functional trial:

Şucce$$!! Many thanks, Frans 😎

I've uploaded the video as unlisted so it will not appear in searches. This is in an effort to avoid any "troubles" from the youtube police... so let's just keep this one amongst our LTD family, eh? 😊

My pleasure! What a joy to see Dusty laugh, dance, and sing so brightly. Those opening few seconds are bliss for a longtime fan to watch 🍷

😄 I love that "Tinkerbelle" gown she has on. 🍷 In the "Bible" Paul dates this Humperdink performance :
5th July 1970. A Jimmy Webb song Dusty takes to new heights.
Frans seems to know all the tricks. Thanks for getting this out there folks !
My son knows how to extract these from video, but he keeps it a secret (he won't tell me !) 😡
