The LTD Archives

by Corinna » Thu Mar 13, 2014 8:44 am

Our archives site http://dustyspringfield.org.uk/ltd_archives/ needed a little technical maintenance, so while updating the software, I also gave the site a slight cosmetic touch up. Nothing dramatic, just a bit of a fresh look. I like to call it spring cleaning! 🧹

Hope you will enjoy it!

I tried clicking on all of the Popular Threads - they all lead to the homepage of LTD - no archive.

I've also had my anti-virus program block me from the forum all week by saying Malware Detected, then I have to sign in each time because the cookie is blocked as malware. I haven't changed any settings or programs on my end.

I've noticed that ever since I got my new phone, I have to log in every time. Not just here but on fb and all other sites I visit. 🙄

My poor memory banks can't store all these user names and passwords- 🙄🙄

I'm having problems with the archives also. It takes me to the Homepage..... A side from that, I have used the archives often since I've joined. So much to catch up on! It's all very informative and appreciated!

It was a test. You've passed. 🤪 🎵 😊

Sorry 'bout that. It should work better now.

This brings me memories to see our old forum. I registered only a few months before the change. 🙄

Thanks for the update, Corinna. 😊
