The "Magic" of the single. (#p174026)

by jeffery » Sun Jul 05, 2015 6:22 pm

🤩 Saw this BBC documentary, and quite enjoyed it.

A mention of "the Springfield's Island of Dreams" brought to mind Dusty's successes in that market.

I thought how exciting it was for her to release a new single, and how her fans eagerly awaited her next big hit.

I hope you all enjoy this too. 🙌

I know what you mean, Jeffrey, about the release of singles. In my case, I am referring back to the 60s. Back then singles were released on Fridays in the UK. There was a tobacconists near my school and, strangely, it also sold records. I used to go there late on a Thursday afternoon and would be able to purchase Dusty singles the day before the official release date. I used to get a real kick out of that. Well, I was only 15 or 16 at the time.

I particularly remember getting Little By Little a day early and thinking the 'B' side, If It Hadn't Been For You, was absolutely wonderful and I was hearing it before everyone else.

This is the first post I have seen from you, Jeffrey, in a while. I hope all has been well with you.
