...were all the colours of autumn according to the Norma Tanega/ Molly McKernan song. Dusty said they were a kind of khaki green. Does a have any colour images that show the true colour of Dusty's eyes and would they be so kind as to share them here.

I remember the 'It Begins Again' LP had a lovely photo which showed Dusty's green eyes well but that was a rare sighting and just one (soft focus) photo so it's hard to know the colour for sure from that (I no longer have the LP). I have a feeling they were many colours, like Norr says, but just looked green in the photo.

I think Dusty's eyes were a kind of light khaki green--quite stunning I should think with her red hair. The cover of Roll Away has a good photo of her eyes:

Lovely--this used to be my avatar and I chose it because of the eyes!!

Thanks so much, Kathy. I might just buy that single to get the colour photo. Her eyes look brown in this image. But that's probably the effect of the imaging software.

Mary, I forgot to ask for people who had actually met Dusty to let us know how they remembered the colour of her eyes. It would have been difficult to see the true colour unless the light was right and Dusty was close enough. Thanks for posting.

The cover of the latest Fraser 'Love Songs' CD collection is a great photo too but the image is in soft focus so I can't really judge for sure. Always that way...

Misty previously posted a lovely close-up of that particular image as her desktop.

Dear Carole and Dear Will

What can I say. I've just been gazing for 20 minutes. Thanks so much. Those are stunning photos in any case. I have that DSB edition but Misty blow-up took my breath away.

THANK YOU! 😊😊😊

Superb photos everyone, thanks Will for that nice big coloured one and Carole Cas and Kathy. The one you've put on Kathy that's the first I've been able to see the detail on the jumper.

Thanks Cas. That photo is terrific. It looks like Dusty's eyes were a few colours (greens and browns) and they change with the light. The c of early autumn. Beautiful eyes.

I remember really taking a good look into Dusty's eyes, years ago. From what I remember, the picture of Dusty wearing the brown and whit striped top is probably the most accurate.

AS I REMEMBER BACK TO 67
DUSTYS LASHES WERE TO LONG AND THE BRIGHTNESS OF THE SUN DIDNT HELP..
I KEEP THINKING THEY WERE A GREEN

Just bringing this thread back for Annie and anyone else new that is interested. I also wanted to say thanks to everyone for your help. I remember posting this and wondering if anyone would answer! This is one of my favourite threads.

Thanks, Memphis. Well, this brings me back to the photo in pink that started me on this quest. In that photo, D's eyes definitely look blue r than the hazel/khaki color of the brown and whit striped shirt. I wonder if the photog altered the picture because that shade of blue is pret afield from what seems to be the real color. Maybe, as in all things Dusty, it's impossible to pin her eye color down to just one (or two!). Interesting!

Thanks again for finding the thread.

I wonder if Dusty approved her eyes being painted blue on the LP See All Her Faces!
