Ewwww the guy she picked was pretty gross lol!

She knew the first one! She should have picked him lol!!!

But my point is...does anyone know if they actually went on the skiing trip?
Did Dusty like the guy at the end of it?

Thanks!

Excellent question to research for your Dusty School work, ladies.

If I were a betting woman, I'd say no way she went on the date.
I'd be really interested to know who set up her appearance. I gues it was a promotional thing for her new song?

I used to watch this show all the time, back in the day.

Excellent! CG to the rescue!

Now, I wonder what our new Greek member would think of Dusty's Greek "date"?

Ok, got it!

The article, entitled Close Call at Claridges, was in a sixties music paper, probably DISC, and written by David Griffiths.

Once comfortable settled in Mr Love (a restaurant), Dusty spoke. "A few days ago I was on a TV quiz show in Hollywood in which my prize was to go off on a date to winter sports in Kitzbuhel. Another girl on the show won a trip to Peru, which I'd have loved, but a European resort was no great thrill for me. Then my date turned out to be a young Greek-American who looked like Ken Dodd. He was a nice guy but we didn't seem to have much in common, even though he wanted to get into show business and asked my manager to manage him! In the end, I managed to get out of going and came back to London instead".

United Kingdom

If i was the guy i'd have been so disappointed 🐔

That said I'd probably have asked Dusty if she fancied a coffee and a chat in Peru 🍷🍷🍷

I can make coffee last a long time aaahhhhh!

LOL. I can't believe Dusty said he looked like that goofy guy!

Well this whole episode just shows how stars sometimes have to suffer for publicity!

She DOES look great singing and dancing a bit to open the show!

Congratulations, Carole, your detective work on this question was just quoted in one of my graduate school papers. You are an example of a fan who has a lot of what Pierre Bourdieu calls "cultural capital" that is useful to other fans, and in turn we use it to create our own meaning of Dusty....yada yada....

I haven't seen this - didn't even know about Dusty on the Dating Game, but I'd be interested if anyone has any screenshots to see if this poor soul actually did resemble the Doddmeister.
