I start counting

I thought that I would put up a web site for those that are not familiar with The Echoes so you may then know where I'm coming from.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The\_Echoes\_1959\_-\_1971

Thanks. I will add some pictures when I know how!!

Dougie..... 😊

Thanks Dougie! It's really good to be able to read a little of the background history as I am a fairly new Dusty convert and still have much to learn. It's also really good to have the input of someone who was part of it all.

As for attaching pictures, it's reasonably simple.

1. Upload your photo somewhere online - your own webspace, PhotoBucket or Flickr, for example.
2. Open the image online and right click, then copy the image address.
3. Use the 'reply' box at the top of the page, not the one at the bottom. Create your message and when you want to add the image, click on the button fourth from the right - looks like a small photo of a mountain.
4. Two sets of square brackets will appear, like this - - you need to place your cursor between the two sets then paste in the image address you copied earlier.
5. Preview your message to make sure the image appears as you want it to, then post.

Hope this helps.

This is fantastic, Douggie, thank you.
I look forward to reading it in detail.

I will close the other thread you opened on the same topic, so we can focus any discussion and questions here.

Thank you for the link Douggie, I well remember Gary Boyle, Peter Wolf, Ivan Chandler and of course yourself, you were so good looking way back then, and really nice guys...you always treated us fans with respect and kindness.

Great to see you on here Douggie - I reiterate Cas comments above. Being one of the "original" fans (better than saying one of the oldies!) spending time with Cas and Carole Gibson in those days, I have some lovely memories of you and the other Echoes....also photos taken, which I treasure alongside those of Dusty.
