For those outwith the UK who are keen to see the show, remember that the BBC now has the iPlayer, which you can access at -

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/>

This will allow you to see shows online after they have aired.

Hope this helps.

I'm not finding the show on the list...is it because it hasn't finished airing yet?

Also, when I tried to play a few other shows to see if the player would work on my lappy, it said for UK viewers only.

Yes it ought to appear over the next few hours or by tomorrow at the latest - but I didn't realise that it was restricted to the UK! How mean is that :(

PS/ No doubt some of the forum members will have taped the show but filing that, it will be repeated during the week on BBC3 probably, so will keep my eyes open and record it and upload a file or two.

It's really hateful for us poor American cows! 😞

But hopefully if I can't see it online someone will send me a copy of this broadcast or later.

In the meantime, can someone give a summary of the show on the thread perhaps...for those of us who haven't seen it? Thankies.

Not just American cows Nancy! I've asked on the other thread that people who have recorded it in the UK burn a DVD. We need three, one to the US, one to Oz and one to Sweden. From there we can get copies made for other members. Any chance UK Dusty fans?

If I can find out when the repeat is on, Kathy, I'll try to do a digital copy and upload some files of the show.

Cor, Nancy and Kathy - I'm afraid I haven't seen the TV much this week and did not manage to record the show as I had hoped. Events have overtaken this week; Fraser's father, Hugh has been in hospital for the last ten days and he died this morning so that has been the focus of much of the week. My apologies and I hope someone here managed to record the show so you can watch all the fuss is about.

Will, don't worry about it. I'm sure someone has recorded the show. You're a great support to Heather, and she needs you most right now. 😘

Thanks for keeping us updated Will. You are a good friend to Fraser and his family. Please give Heather our condolences, it must be terribly sad to lose a son and a husband within a year. Our thoughts are with you and Heather at this time. 😊
