Released last year on CD, the soundtrack of The Stunt Man features Dusty's Bits And Pieces (which was already available on Classics & Collectibles)

Although that is the only Dusty vocal on this soundtrack CD, there are other tracks which feature variations on the melody of Bits And Pieces, to particularly good effect on one very short uptempo track The Chase- 48 seconds of swirling 70s strings and brass which I think could form the basis of a fantastic remix of Bits And Pieces if someone was to try it.

The CD is limited to 3,000 copies so it could become hard to find in a few years.

Great, Clive! BTW, the cover says "Music by Dominic Frontiere". Just a bit of background - Frontiere composed the music for a great '60's series, "One Step Beyond". He also bought the Los Angeles Rams National Football League team. His widow, Georgia still owns the (now) St.Louis Rams.

Michael, Georgia actually passed away last year, or earlier this year. Not sure who owns the Rams now, though I'd bet on their children.

I've always liked 'The Stunt Man' and consider it to be a forgotten treasure. I must make a note to play it more often. 😊

Yes, you're right, Taylor! Sorry for the oversight. She did own the Rams for quite a while, though. Guess they wish they still had Kurt Warner.
