Just had a thought... I'm off out for the day tomorrow to meet a friend in Windsor (cos it's half way between where we live) so I'm gonna try and make a special detour to Henley and tell Dusty personally that Katy won and how she's done her, her music, her memory and her fans proud!

Absolutely Tom!!.....we're there in September but I doubt Katy will be singing then, though I have been lucky enough to see her on a 'songs of the 60's tour'.

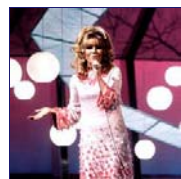

American Airlines are pretty good on price from the UK to the States, but if, like me, you need a bit more legroom then Air New Zealand is the one to check out!!

Congratulations Katy on your success!! Wonderful performance especially with YDHTSYLM. That had tears streaming down my face. Very emotional to see the Superfans reaction. Splendid words by Simon Bell about Dusty/Katy. So true!! Thanks for your posts Will. Have just relived the whole tension packed evening reading them!! Well Done again Katy. You've restored Dusty's reputation with the British public. Good Luck in Las Vegas!!

Dusty is back where she belongs - in the heart of the British nation and in the hearts and minds of many across the world. We owe Katy Setterfield big time - I don't think anyone else could have done as magnificent a job as she did tonight and I am still deeply moved, as I am sure you are too, by her stunning performance of You Don't Have To Say You Love Me. She has never sung better than she did tonight on that second show - she gave it everything has and she pulled it off. She was absolutely magnificent. Every vote was worth it.

Nancy, your tribute is lovely :) Very fitting.

Katy has done us - and Dusty fans all around the world - proud tonight and we owe her big time. May I be the first to suggest that we really ought to do something to show her our appreciation? This is a once in a lifetime opportunity, to bring Dusty back to the nation in the way that she has done so spectacularly this evening. My mobile and my email are going bananas with message of congratulations from all over the place, and Neil is obviously having the same experience.

Will go work on images from the second show and post them once done.

I am SO thrilled that Katy has won!!!

Text message from our superfan, Carole -

BLOODY AMAZING! x

I've texted back to say the forum is going mad with messages and we are all delighted and thrilled with Katy and with the Superfans :)

Watching my recording of the Grand Final now so I can capture some stills from it.

In the video intro prior to her last song, Katy said that the chance to go to Vegas would be her dream, that if you are a tribute act, it's the place to be. Her husband is saying that this show has "rekindled her love of singing - this would be her dream come true". Katy says that after working so hard for 17 or 18 years, she has finally got some recognition and it just feels fantastic - "I want to win and I'm going to give it lots of soul.. hopefully it'll be enough to take me all the way to Las Vegas".

Pictures shortly ..

She's everywhere, really.

The new BBC DVD out this fall.

Shelby Lynne's cover CD just released.

A GIRL CALLED DUSTY to open in the West End.

A play about Dusty currently playing in LA.

In the cruise ship commercial.

A new compilation CD coming out.

Paul's latest edition of The Complete DS.

Now Katy in Vegas.

Can only reiterate the text received from Carole of bloody amazing! Katy was so, so close to Dusty's original versions that it brought tears to all our eyes - I had fingers crossed that she wouldn't come down with a cold she had mentioned in her e-mail a couple of days ago. The final result too left us all so emotional, I for one re-lived Dusty's performances again, and to see Simon and Carole in tears just finished me off! Am hoping if Katy departs before Dusty Day, an additional "special day" can be arranged later, as we are all going to feel cheated! But, it was a brilliant result nonetheless. The memory of Dusty lives on!

I agree with Moira - even if Vegas commitments mean that Katy can't make Dusty Day (and Heather and I are happy to announce that we are DEFINITELY coming) then we need to do something to mark this wonderful success which Katy has achieved this evening.

Her final performance of You Don't Have To Say You Love Me had me in tears and seems to have had the same effect on other people also. I have never seen her sing so superbly - that performance took my breath away.

For those who have not yet seen it, believe me (to quote the song itself) that descriptions of it do NOT do it justice - you *really* need to see this to see how excellent it really was.

Sure glad that's over with! Think I just aged by ten years! All worth it of course. Can hardly wait for the U-tube clips! Damn that BBC! How dare they do that to out of country fans!

Nancy - At times Katy's voice was deeper than Dusty's, and occasionally I found she sang some of the words a little too fast. Can't remember which song it was but it was a couple of weeks ago - might have been at the beginning of "Preacher Man", but that didn't take away the great performances she gave throughout the series. But, tonight she was absolutely amazing, and she deserved to win...and eventually they got the eye make up right too! I bet there are some champagne corks popping now! Lucky people.
