I have saved a few ticket stubs from the Concerts/Shows that I saw Dusty perform in, I should have a whole lot more goodness knows what I did with them all. I thought we could have a thread of these...I'm sure you'll all have something you can add.

Start you off with this one. It doesn't have Dusty's name on...but she did perform believe me 😊

How much did tickets to shows like that cost, Cas, and was it a lot in the day?

I cant really remember what we paid Nancy but this one has an actual price on.

10shillings was 50p in todays money so maybe you can get some idea from that...I'm feeling VERY old 😊 Clubs like Stockton Fiesta would be a whole lot more.

I kept them all but don't have them any more. I'm a bad fan 🌍 The cost seemed like a lot at the time, so much so that we couldn't do every show. Especially if it included staying over somewhere when buses and trains didn't run late enough.

Thanks for sharing Cas!.....wow, wish I was a teen then and not a Monkey! 🐵

Was Dusty wearing any of the famous Gowns that we've seen on various pictures at these concerts?

Yes Mark, Dusty often wore those famous gowns for her concerts. These, for instance, were taken at the Talk of the North Club in Manchester, both Cas and I were there. Probably one of her tightest dresses and a favourite of mine.

Came across this one online, Dusty was on the same bill. Why do the 'stars' of today think it's ok to charge those crazy prices? I know that in some cases the stage shows are big extravagant affairs, but Dusty didn't need any of that. We just wanted to see her. And I'd still just want to see her, you can keep the light shows, dancers and fireworks, she could hold a stage alone.

I agree Carole Dusty would come on stage and she was just electrifying and we'd be spell bound she was SO good live and she didnt realise it. We often watched both shows if she was performing two...amazing.

'Right On' Carole...You and Cas are a couple of lucky gals. I have saved most (a few have gone missing) of the ticket stubs from music shows that I have gone to..but now with buying tix on line sometimes you just get a receipt.🙄....and a very high service charge.🙄

I love the introduction to this. It's so 'northern clubs' where the compere would come on and apologise for taking off the usual film and putting "the acts" on instead!

A few days before Dusty appeared in Bradford, the tour played Liverpool. Looking for something to eat, we went into a greasy spoon near the theatre and the only sandwiches they had were made with Kraft Cheese slices. I hated them, but was starving. It was worth it though, because the Zombies came in too. Funny what you remember.

And talking as I was of Northern Clubs, I remembered this little piece.

Yes Kathy quite often we'd be near to the very front of the stage and at Liverpool for the Panto if I'm not mistaken we were on the front row for at least one of the performances. Sometimes we were so close we could reach out to touch her.

Carole I'd be happy to have a bit of a dodgy memory if I'd been lucky enough to see Dusty perform live!

It's nice to be a wee bit younger and have a good memory but all us younger bods missed out on the wonderful experiences you and Cas had (which I love reading about!) so I have to admit to being a tad jealous!! 😡 Alright a LOT jealous!!!! 🤔🤔

I wonder how she could perform the same show twice on the same evening. Was the first show just a warm up for her, or did she possibly get bored on the second set?

Do you remember, Cas or Carole - was the show or the feeling any different?

IF you can remember, that is. 😊

I certainly don't ever remember her sounding bored for the second set Cor, just the opposite if anything. I guess the earlier show was just like a matinee performance rather than a warm up, two seperate shows for two seperate groups of people. Dusty's fans were always very vocal and appreciative, and she gave back to us with her performances.

Pam tells me she always saw Dusty at the later shows (some not starting until 10:30 or 11 pm in Oz) and that she was electric. Pam suspects that she did do slightly different shows for different audiences as Carole says because although she saw her many times over the period when she was doing the Shirley Temple number, Pam never saw her perform it. Obviously that was an early show number! 😊

Dusty put her everything into all her performances, each perhaps being a little different because of Dusty's ad libbing. Always electrifying and totally brilliant...you could not fault her 'live'.
