Hi ,everyone.

Well, I guess I stirred up a stink with Mr. Bret. He took offense at my review of his book. He gave a review of my review and he thinks I am someone named Katie Birchard and I'm being sued in California for slander. This guy has an ego that is unbelievable. Mr. Bret gave his own book a three star review! Not only that, but he has attacked me on his blog and some of you for your comments regarding the book. Sorry guys, I never meant for that to happen. It seems he has been trolling the Dusty forums to see what has been said about the book. I'm going to post on amazon to try to explain my review. Despite the fact that he was downright nasty on his blog, I am taking the high road and will be polite. I am then going to forget that I ever read the book and get back to what made me like Dusty in the first place: her music. I had never posted a review before; I never expected to be attacked by the author. Again, sorry for this mess.

If I were you I'd simply ignore the man. All he's after is some cheap publicity so please don't worry about it. 🌹

😡 Sorry! Can't review trash I won't read. 😡

😡 Good bye David Bret. 😡
